There are amazing people in life this essay is about mine. My favorite person who influences me is my brother Gavin, here are some reasons why.

One reason why my brother is a great influencer is, he'll try everything in life like, he'll try for choiral solos, Spelling bees, Camps outside of town, sports and so much more, and he's brave enough to do it all and more.

Another reason why my brother influences me is, he's an amazing athlete. He's a great athlete because he always ready to move, he excels at every sport he plays, and he's a team player.

One more reason why my brother influences me is, he's a great friend. He's a great friend because he's kind, he's a good sport, he's caring and always thinks of others.

As you can see, this is why my brother Gavin, plays an important role in my life.
