Have you ever thought of who influenced you? My influencers are Michael Jordan and Kyrrie Irving.

First, they both teach me to keep going and to chase my dream to be a WNBA Player.

Second they tell me to keep going even if I did something wrong or bad.

Finally, they tell me to practice more so I can get better and they teach me to cheer on my team mates.

They are important to me because they help me get better and to follow my dreams.
